Kifangondo

The huge bronze monument commemorating the decisive battle of Kifangondo, fought between FNLA and MPLA. One of the most important battles in the history of Angola.

Ponta do Padrão

This is the famous landing place of the Portuguese explorer Diogo Cão, who reached Angola in 1482.

Nzau Évua Caves

Very beautiful caves (easy to reach !) with amazing views and ancient paintings. It's also an important spiritual and agricultural area.

Kulumbimbi

Built in 1548, Kulumbimbi is the first Catholic cathedral south of the Sahara.

Museu dos Reis

This building was originally built in 1901 and used as the royal residence for the Congo Kings until the last succession to the throne in the 60's. After independence, it became the Museum of the Kings of the Congo
